Dear Sirs:

I read with interest the proposal of changes for Security Considerations for the Flightdeck on Foreign operated Transport Category Airplanes.

I usually travel every year overseas and prior to September 11, 2001 the thought of security always came to my mind many times, but, honestly, it was mainly directed to the idea of thinking that the airline that I was using took good care of the maintenance of their airplanes.

Unfortunately, now, I could not agree more with all the suggested changes that you are proposing in your Rule and would like to support all your recommendations.

It is necessary for those who travel to feel secure and it is good to know that everything possible is done for your safety.

Sincerely,

Virginia de Solo
